Sam Houston Area Council #576

40D /The Houston Post/Thurs., Oct. 13, 1983

■ Houston man sentenced

A Boy Scout leader was sentenced to 10 years probation and fined $1,000 Wednesday for indecency with three boys who went to his home to work on merit badges.

Don Williams, 38, of the 6600 block of Bridgegate, pleaded guilty to three counts of indecency with children and was sentenced to three concurrent 10-year probated sentences by state District Judge Patricia Lykos.

Assistant District Attorney Russel Lloyd said Williams lured two 12-year-old boys and one 13-year-old to his home on separate occasions and fondled them.

Lloyd said in one case one of the scouts fell in poison ivy and Williams began administering lotion to the boy and then fondled the boy's genitals.

Williams was arrested in March after the mother of one of the boys complained.

Lykos ordered that Williams, a salesman, not be allowed to participate in any youth activities like scouts during his probation.

SUBJECT: Don Williams

Dear Roger:

About a month and a half ago, we had some correspondence concerning the above named individual. At that time you sent a newspaper clipping indicating that he was convicted of indecency with youth.

I had asked that a confidential record sheet be completed so that we could identify Mr. Williams and place him on our confidential file. It is possible that you did not receive my letter and I am, therefore, enclosing another confidential record sheet to be completed. Please indicate as much information as possible so that we can more easily identify Mr. Williams once he is out of jail and moves to another location.

If you have further questions, please do not hesitate contacting us.

Sincerely,
