Re: William S. Kise
Scoutmaster, Troop 2

Dear Mr. Caldwell:

Thanks for sending us a copy of the letter from Robert B. Bartlett, dated January 4, concerning William S. Kise, Scoutmaster of Troop 2. We have placed this information in our files and have taken steps to have his name deleted from the Troop roster.

Enclosed is a confidential record sheet which we would appreciate your completing and returning to us as soon as possible, together with any substantiating documents, such as copy of the police or court records, statement from the Doctor who examined Kise, statement from the Chattahoochee State Hospital, or any newspaper clippings that may be available regarding this situation.

This additional information will enable us to identify Mr. Kise should he ever again attempt to register in the Scouting program. Thanks for your kind cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Re: Mr. William Kiss
Scoutmaster, Troop 2
P. O. Box 3742
Orlando, Florida

Dear Mr. Caldwell:

The above Scouter was charged during the month of September with lewd assault on a six-year-old child. This man spent approximately three months in the County jail during which time he was examined and counselled with. The two doctors that examined him felt that he is a sexual psychopath.

This man was given several choices, one of pleading guilty or not guilty, or saying that he needed psychiatric treatment. He chose the latter of these and has been admitted to the Chattahoochee State Hospital, Chattahoochee, Florida.

This man is twenty-five years old, single, is five feet eleven inches, weighs approximately 155 pounds, wears glasses and has an excellent personality. He is very friendly with everyone he meets.

This information was obtained from Mr. Collis White, his attorney, who has his office here in Orlando. Should you need further information, please advise and I will supply you with same.

Sincerely,

Robert F. Bartlett
District Scout Executive

ARTICLE II — PURPOSE: CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT — CITIZENSHIP TRAINING

"The purpose of this corporation is as set forth in the original certificate of incorporation under the laws of the District of Columbia, dated February 8, 1910, and restated in Section 3 of the charter granted by Congress June 15, 1916, as follows: That the purpose of this corporation shall be to promote, through organization, and cooperation with other agencies, the ability of boys to do things for themselves and others, to train them in Scoutcraft, and to teach them patriotism, courage, self-reliance, and kindred virtues, using the methods which are now in common use by Boy Scouts' by placing emphasis upon the Scout Oath or Promise and Law for character development, citizenship training, and physical fitness."—Constitution of the Boy Scouts of America.

GRANTING COMMISSIONS AND CERTIFICATES OF MEMBERSHIP

The Constitution and Bylaws of the Boy Scouts of America authorize commissions and certificates of membership only to those who subscribe to the Scout Oath or Promise and Law, the declaration of religious principle (as printed below), and its Constitution and Bylaws and are citizens of the United States, or have legally declared their intentions to become citizens of the U. S.

ARTICLE IV—DECLARATION OF RELIGIOUS PRINCIPLE

"Section 1. The Boy Scouts of America maintains that no boy can grow into the best kind of citizenship without recognizing his obligation to God. In the first part of the Boy Scout's Oath or Promise the boy declares, 'On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law.' The recognition of God as the ruling and leading power in the universe and the grateful acknowledgment of His favors and blessings are necessary to the best type of citizenship and are wholesome precepts in the education of the growing boy. No matter what the boy may be—Catholic or Protestant or Jew—this fundamental need of good citizenship should be kept before him. The Boy Scouts of America therefore recognizes the religious element in the training of the boy, but it is absolutely nonsectarian in its attitude toward that religious training. Its policy is that the organization or institution with which the Boy Scout is connected shall give definite attention to his religious life.

"Only persons willing to subscribe to this declaration of principle shall be entitled to certificates of leadership in carrying out the Boy Scout program."

THE SCOUT OATH OR PROMISE

On my honor I will do my best
To do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law;
To help other people at all times;
To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.

THE CUB SCOUT PROMISE

I, (_____), promise to do my best
To do my duty to God
And my country,
To be square, and
To obey the Law of the Pack.

THE SCOUT LAW

1. A Scout is trustworthy.
A Scout's honor is to be trusted. If he were to violate his honor by telling a lie or by cheating or by not doing exactly a given task, when trusted on his honor, he may be directed to hand over his Scout badge.
2. A Scout is loyal.
He is loyal to all to whom loyalty is due, his Scout leader, his home and parents and country.
3. A Scout is helpful.
He must be prepared at any time to save life, help injured persons, and share the home duties. He must do at least one Good Turn to somebody every day.
4. A Scout is friendly.
He is a friend to all and a brother to every other Scout.
5. A Scout is courteous.
He is polite to all, especially to women, children, old people, and the weak and helpless. He must not take pay for being helpful or courteous.
6. A Scout is kind.
He is a friend to animals. He will not kill nor hurt any living creature needlessly, but will strive to save and protect all harmless life.
7. A Scout is obedient.
He obeys his parents, Scoutmaster, patrol leader, and all other duly constituted authorities.
8. A Scout is cheerful.
He smiles whenever he can. His obedience to orders is prompt and cheery. He never shirks nor grumbles at hardships.
9. A Scout is thrifty.
He does not wantonly destroy property. He works faithfully, wastes nothing, and makes the best use of his opportunities. He saves his money so that he may pay his own way, be generous to those in need, and helpful to worthy objects. He may work for pay, but must not receive tips for courtesies or Good Turns.
10. A Scout is brave.
He has the courage to face danger in spite of fear and to stand up for the right against the coaxings of friends or the jeers or threats of enemies, and defeat does not down him.
11. A Scout is clean.
He keeps clean in body and thought; stands for clean speech, clean sport, clean habits; and travels with a clean crowd.
12. A Scout is reverent.
He is reverent toward God. He is faithful in his religious duties and respects the convictions of others in matters of custom and religion.

BOYS' LIFE

Registered adult members are entitled to a half-price membership rate of $1.50 a year or 12½ cents a month. (Regular rate is $3.) A Boys' Life subscription should be for the same number of months as an individual's registration, but the first issue of Boys' Life will not normally arrive for approximately 2 months. Your local council will transmit your subscription on the appropriate unit or council roster form.

Boys' Life is published by the Boy Scouts of America and contains some of the best of fiction, hobbies, crafts, sports, and outdoor crafts and skills. Program material is coordinated with unit program themes.

APPROVAL

The application of the Cubmaster, Scoutmaster, Explorer Advisor, and their assistants and Den Mothers should be approved by the chairman of the unit committee. Applications of unit committeemen and the institutional representative must be approved by the head of the institution or sponsoring body. Council Scouters should be approved by the proper council authority.

REGISTRATION FEES

If applicant already holds an unexpired registration certificate in another capacity, no fee is required with this application, unless he is ceasing activity in the other capacity. In such case he should pay a proportionate fee to the expiration of this registration.

Annual adult fee is $1, but for periods of less than 1 year, registration will be proportionate to the period to be covered, as shown on the front side.
