SUBJECT: Lowell L. Merritt

About ten days ago I was handed a copy of a news clipping, which read as follows:

"A Corfu man was arraigned at Newstead Town Court Friday evening on a public lewdness charge following his arrest by State Police earlier in the day.

"Judge Thomas Haberneck withheld setting a hearing date until the suspect, identified as Lowell L. Merritt, 42, of 70 E. Main St., Corfu could obtain an attorney as an indigent. Merritt was released in the custody of his wife.

"State Police reported that the suspect was on two years' probation on a disorderly conduct conviction following an indecent exposure incident in June, 1967.

"Merritt was arrested on a warrant obtained by a Buffalo police officer, Richard E. Murphy, a resident of the town of Newstead, who chased a brown station wagon which his 10 year old daughter, Karen, pointed out as similar to one from which a man tried to entice her several months ago."

I have checked with the State Police and with the Genesee Probation Department and have discovered the following facts:

1. Merritt was charged with indecent exposure, in 1967, by a 14 year old girl. The charge was reduced to disorderly conduct and he pleaded guilty. Since then he has been on probation and is also undergoing psychiatric care at the Mon. St. Carr Clinic.
2. He was charged with carnal abuse in 1947 in Albany, N.Y. and was jailed for one year on 10/4/48.
3. He told the Erie Co. Probation officers that he had left Scouting during August of 1967.

Per our conversation, I am returning his registration card and will meet with him at the first opportunity to tell him that we cannot register him.
