Dear Howard:

Kenneth Potter, registered as Scoutmaster of Troop 45, Tacoma, is to be placed on your confidential file.

He was picked up by the Police on a sodomy charge involving another man. He has been excommunicated by the Latter Day Saints Church.

At the present time he is living in Tacoma but we understand he is scheduled to move to California within the next few days, possibly to the San Diego area.

I am inclined to believe he will present himself for leadership in Scouting wherever he may go.

I trust his Troop Registration record will give you the necessary information regarding age, etc. I understand he has lived in Utah and Alaska prior to coming here.

Very truly yours,

Herbert West,
Scout Executive

Howard:

The L.D.S. Bishop who gave us this information on Potter advised that additional information could be obtained from the Presiding Bishopric's office of the Latter Day Saints Church, Salt Lake City, Utah as Potters' file has been sent there.

Regards,

P.S: His history shows he moves around considerably. He has been ex-communicated from the LDS Church so will probably not be showing up in units of that denomination.
