Dear Jack:

Attached is a news clipping from the Boulder Daily Camera dated May 23, 1963, concerning a Mr. Robert W. Wilber. Mr. Wilber was Explorer Advisor of Post 2173 until the Post Charter expired March 31, 1963. The facts outlined in the clipping were not discovered until recently, and every effort is being made to keep the name and reputation of the Boy Scout Movement out of the news.

However to eliminate the possibility of this man ever coming in contact with boys again the Boy Scout Movement, I recommend that the information be passed on to the National Council, Boy Scouts of America for their attention.

Sincerely,

Dear Howard:

Here is a report on a former leader in Boulder, Colorado, whose recent conduct marks him as a candidate for the "confidential file".

The man is Robert W. Wilber, 32, 2665 Kohler Drive, Boulder, Colorado.

The letter dated May 25, 1963, from Carl E. Timmins, District Scout Executive, gives us further particulars on the case. Indeed, our District Scout Executive should be complimented on the excellent way in which he handled the matter, carefully avoiding any reference to the Boy Scouts of America in the news coverage.

Robert Wilber is five feet, six inches tall, weighing about 130 pounds. He is a single man, employed at the Boulder Laboratories of National Standards, Department of Commerce, as a scientist using very technical instruments.

The Explorer Post to which Mr. Wilber was related, expired March 31, 1963, and we received official notice from the National Bureau of Standards that they wanted to drop the charter with the thought of renewing the organization next fall. In other words, Mr. Wilber maintained no official relationship to the Boy Scouts of America at the time of his arrest.

If you have further questions on this case do not hesitate to contact Carl E. Timmins at Box 609, Boulder, Colorado.

Personal best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

LONGS PEAK COUNCIL

Boulder Man Accused Of Lewd Acts

A Boulder man, accused of indecent acts with boys 14 and 15 years old, surrendered himself Wednesday afternoon. Robert W. Wilber, 32, of 2665 Kohler Dr., posted $3,000 bond for his release pending appearance in District Court on June 3.

Police detectives, armed with a search warrant, went to Wilber's home Sunday night and reported they seized lewd pictures and paraphernalia allegedly used for immoral purposes.

Deputy Dist. Atty. John R. Mack filed an information in District Court charging Wilber with enticing a boy into a room in Wilber's residence last July and attempting to take indecent liberties.

Police Chief Myron M. Teegarden and Detective Chief Donald H. Vendel said the youth named in the information was one of four who signed statements about episodes in Wilber's home and who said several other juvenile boys had been involved. The incidents purportedly occurred over a period of weeks in the summer of 1962.

Wilber went to the sheriff's office yesterday afternoon with an attorney after being notified to appear on the District Court warrant. Vendel said Wilber refused to answer any questions on the advice of his lawyer.
