Dear Paul:

Enclosed is the resignation letter of the Scoutmaster registered in Troop 247, District 5, South Florida Council #84, Miami, Florida. He lists working conditions, the situation in fact is the molestation of one of his Scouts. This was called to the attention of the Commissioner's Staff by the parents of the scout involved. When confronted by the Commissioner's Staff, Mr. Copps agreed to resign voluntarily. The parents consequently have decided not to prosecute.

He should be placed in our confidential file. If you need any further information, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Dear Reverend Davis,

Effective January 8, 1975 I am resigning as Scoutmaster of Troop 247, and also all positions that I hold in South Florida Council of Scouting.

The reason for this resignation is increased working conditions and to be able to improve my personal relationship at home.

Sincerely yours,

William J. Copps
