Dear [REDACTED]

A recent check of our Ineligible Volunteer File against the National Eagle Scout Association indicated that the above named individual is presently a member of NESA.

This individual is listed on our Ineligible Volunteer File and will not be permitted to register with the Boy Scouts of America. We wanted you to be aware of this, so that the individual cannot participate in any activities with the council, simply because he is a member of NESA. He should not participate in any leadership capacity or assume any responsibility in the Boy Scouts of America. He could participate as a parent if he has a son or daughter involved.

We wanted to make you aware of this, so you would not involve him. Let us know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Paul Ernat, Director

Dear Paul:

Thank you for your letter of September 9, 1981 regarding
Mr. [REDACTED]

The facts surrounding his arrest, allegations and trial are:

- 1). He was arrested June 2, 1981 and charged with the sexual abuse of a minor, and the possession of child pornography.
- 2). Approximately three weeks later [REDACTED] was tried in the Homewood, Alabama city court. The above charges were dropped and he pleaded guilty to a misdemeanor of disorderly conduct.
- 3). There were two youths involved in the allegations. [REDACTED] has served as a volunteer Juvenile Court Counselor of one of these boys. In meeting personally with [REDACTED] and a local minister, [REDACTED] explained the situation relative to the allegations on the warrant for arrest as a vicious attack by this youth with whom he had been counseling.
- 4). On August 10, 1981, I met with [REDACTED] and he requested to be allowed to continue his adult registration as a District Member at Large in the Birmingham Area Council.

September 15, 1981

Since [REDACTED] had been convicted of no felony or proven to conduct himself in any immoral way and has not had one witness to the contrary of his character, I accepted his continuance in that capacity. However, I advised him verbally that it would not be sound judgement for him to involve himself in any phase of Scouting activity that would cause him to have direct or isolated contact with youth members. [REDACTED] agreed to this judgement.

5). Upon the solicitation of [REDACTED] attorney, I have received 21 letters of support and recommendation attesting to Mr. [REDACTED] integrity and character. Included in this number of testimonies are Scouts, former Scouts, leaders, court workers, ministers, parents of Scouts, and other leaders. (I enclose [REDACTED]'s cover letter.) Among these letters is one from his former employer, [REDACTED], Scout Executive in Memphis and his former Field Director, [REDACTED] in. I talked personally to these two and three others whom I know and am convinced of their sincere conviction.

6). [REDACTED] did apparently, while a District Executive in the Black Warrior Council, either use or appear to use poor judgement in his association with summer camp staff members. His action resulted in the staff leadership developing suspicions as to his conduct and intentions, which they related to me when I made inquiry concerning the June 2nd charges and arrest. As they related these suspicions to me, they are well founded.

In my opinion, [REDACTED]'s future actions should be monitored and should he move to another council territory, I would feel obligated to make the Scout Executive there aware of this incident. At this point, his innocence in this incident has apparently been accepted by all of his associates.

Certainly, if anything further develops, I will take the appropriate action.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern:

Enclosed please find many letters of testimonial on behalf of [REDACTED].

Please note that each of the persons expressed shock and disbelief over the recent publicity Mr. Francis has received. The testimonials are from many scouts, former scouts, leaders, parents of scouts and various adults.

They are all confident of the integrity and moral conduct of [REDACTED]. One parent even expressed without equivocation, permission for their son to go on any future activities with [REDACTED].

It is my opinion that [REDACTED] would have been acquitted of the charges against him, but this of course would have involved litigation over a long period of time and more adverse publicity.

[REDACTED] decided to plead to misdemeanor charges involving disorderly conduct and paid a small fine, in order, to terminate this matter and resume his normally good and productive life.

Sincerely,

Dear Jere:

I received information from the Black Warrior Council concerning [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. I understand that he was arrested and had a trial in your council area. I am establishing a confidential file for him, but would like more information in order to make certain that the file is complete should he try to register in some other area of the country.

If you could supply me with a copy of the court record or newspaper clippings indicating the trial and sentencing, this would be most helpful. If these papers are not available, please secure the information concerning sentencing and the charges and we will place it in our file in order to strengthen the case should there be a need to pursue the matter farther.

Dear [REDACTED]:

Thanks for the information concerning [REDACTED]. We appreciate your effort in securing this information. I will write to the Birmingham Area Council and see if I can get more information concerning any trials or sentencing which may have taken place.

I believe you are on safe grounds in refusing registration in your Order of the Arrow Lodge to [REDACTED]. If you allowed everyone to register regardless of where they lived, you would have tremendous problem in maintaining any semblance of order or records and certainly this would not lead to a solid organization as far as meetings and service were concerned.

I am well aware of the problems which we all had during the summer. The Jamboree took a lot of my time and delayed my response on many items. Thanks again for your help in this important matter.

During the Summer of 1979, I accidentally overheard [REDACTED] tell a young boy to tell his mother a lie about his whereabouts, while asking him to come to his apartment.

In addition, while serving as Camp Director in the Summer of 1979, staff members complained to me about [REDACTED]'s actions toward them. Specifically, they said he pinched them in the buttocks and placed his hands on them on other parts of their bodies. In addition, it was reported his apartment was a refuge for summer camp staff members to have parties and consume alcoholic beverages.

News staff writer

A volunteer worker, who was a former professional Boy Scout worker, has left Jefferson County Family Court following allegations he sexually abused a 15-year-old boy, The News has learned.

Homewood police charged [redacted], 27, with sexual abuse Tuesday following an 11-day, internal investigation by court officials.

Chief Probation Officer A.C. Conyers said Francis will not be reassigned to work with other delinquent children. The case is still under investigation.

AUTHORITIES said the abuse allegedly occurred at [redacted] Homewood apartment. Conyers said volunteers are not supposed to take juveniles to their homes.

[redacted], who had done similar work at Tuscaloosa County Family

Court, came to Birmingham "highly recommended" about one year ago, Conyers said. He had worked with at least two other delinquents here before the complaint came up.

[redacted] will be tried on the misdemeanor charge in Homewood, officials said.

Meanwhile, [redacted] has been transferred from Homewood to Jefferson County Jail on a child pornography charge.

Homewood Sgt. George Carr said [redacted] was arrested at his place of employment Monday, after Homewood police took possession of several obscene pictures of children.

James Parsons, administrative assistant to the mayor, said possession of child pornography is a felony under the new state criminal code.

A 19-year-old youth who lives with Francis gave the pictures to police, Carr said.

Heflin bill asks for national soybean institute

News Washington bureau

Sen. Howell Heflin Tuesday introduced a bill to create a National Research Soybean Institute.

The institute, Heflin said, would focus atten-

Dear [REDACTED],

[REDACTED] told me that he had notified you of the arrest and allegations against [REDACTED] of Homewood, Alabama.

Enclosed are copies of the two newspaper articles which appeared locally. Fortunately no additional identification with Scouting has been made. Francis moved to Birmingham about one year ago. He has been a registered District Committee member in this Council since then.
The information that I received from the Tuscaloosa Council indicated that he left the Scouting profession in November, 1977 and that he had been a volunteer in that Council from that time until he moved to Birmingham in 1980.

We will locally monitor the situation.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

Court worker charged with sexually abusing b

The parents of a 15-year-old boy yesterday charged a volunteer juvenile court worker with sexually abusing the youth, Homewood police said.

The misdemeanor charge came as the result of a complaint that Allan Francis, 34, was keeping obscene materials at his apartment where he lived with a 19-year-old man on probation from the juvenile system.

Francis said the 15-year-old already had made a formal complaint about Francis with the juvenile court in May 82.

Francis was arrested Monday after police searched his apartment at 1916 Chelsea Circle for obscene materials. Carr said "an adult" had been found viewing the pornography at Francis' home.

Francis, who moved to Homewood a month ago, was a prominent community worker, overseeing trips to the Trussville area. There he often worked as a volunteer in the juvenile system's One-on-One program. That program is designed to place probationary youths with a mentor.

In Homewood, Francis had housed a 19-year-old in the program for about a month, and was working with a 15-year-old boy, Carr said.

The father said the 19-year-old made statements concerning Allan's pornographic collection. The 15-year-old also has made statements alleging sexual abuse. The juvenile court had begun an internal investigation into the charges, but had taken no action, Carr said.

Francis has been working for Electronic Engineers Alabama Inc. in Homewood. He was placed in the Jefferson County Jail on $5,000 bond for possession of obscene materials. He posted bond about 10 p.m. He declined comment at home. The sexual abuse case will be tried in Homewood courts, Carr said.

Banks student drowns

Trussville police divers searched a quarry lake for about three hours yesterday before recovering the body of a 16-year-old drowning victim.

The Birmingham teenager, Gregory Blackman, of 6923 Second Ave. North, a Banks High School student, had been swimming with four classmates at the "Rock Quarry" off Mary Taylor Road, Officer Ray Johnson said.

"The boys decided to swim across the quarry. It was pretty wide, and all but one of them made it," Johnson said.

Blackman apparently tired and began to go under. Johnson said the other youths tried to swim back to help their friend, but were worn out from the long noon-hour swim themselves.

One of them called Trussville police, who sent a diver accompanied by members of the city's Fire Department. It was near 3 p.m. when the boy's body was found in the cold, underground spring water.

The quarry, about 150 yards wide and 65 feet deep, was the scene of a similar drowning in July 1979, said Sgt. Don Emerson. That accident claimed the life of James McNally Jr., 14.

The quarry is bordered by sheer walls, making it difficult for anyone to get in or out.

Owned by Southern Industries of Mobile, the quarry is not posted with "No Swimming" signs.

And Emerson said police have had numerous problems ranging from assaults to car theft at the quarry.

City to host meeting

Birmingham has been chosen to host next year's National Conference on Neighborhood Concerns.

Neighborhoods, U.S.A., a national grass-roots organization, named the Magic City for the May 1982 event at its recent annual meeting in Albuquerque.

Birmingham's nationally-recognized Citizen Participation Program, which organizes and aids the city's 91 neighborhoods, and presentations to the Albuquerque conference helped the city win the selection. New Orleans was another top contender.

Representatives of the local neighborhoods, the Community Development Department and the Greater Birmingham Convention and Visitors Bureau addressed the Neighborhoods, U.S.A. board of directors.

City officials estimate the convention will bring 200-300 participants from around the country.

Fullman refiles plea

Former Bessemer policeman Thomas B. Fullman has refiled his request for another hearing on his $100 million lawsuit stemming from the 1979 bombing of Bessemer City Hall.

Attorney David Thomas, at the request of U.S. District Judge Robert B. Propst, yesterday filed a detailed seven-count amended complaint. The judge has yet to rule on the motion for a new hearing.

It charges several defendants with false arrest, false imprisonment, and malicious prosecution. In addition, the amended complaint charges Globe Communications Corp., publishers of True Police Magazine, with slander and libel.

Fullman was indicted in August 1979 by a county grand jury on charges of aggravated murder. The government said he was responsible for sending the mail bomb that killed Lt. Clifford T. Hill, blew off Public Safety Commissioner Max Williams' left hand and injured Gene Lint, executive secretary to Mayor Ed Porter.

The state twice tried Fullman, asking for the death penalty in a trial that ended Nov. 16, 1979, in a hung jury. The state recommended life imprisonment for Fullman in a second trial March 1980, but the jury found him innocent.

The amended complaint names defendants including Globe Communications, Attorney General Charles Graddick, former Bessemer police chief George W. Patton, the city of Bessemer, Postal Inspector John B. Stuart, Birmingham Trust National Bank, Jefferson County Sheriff Mel Bailey, county deputy sheriff Fred House, Bessemer police officers Carl J. Portera, J.R. Pace and Douglas F. Acker, assistant district attorney "Pete" Short. Unlike the complaint, the amended name the Birmingham News and the Birmingham News Ennsley student sh.

On the day of his graduation, an 18-year-old high school student was confined with a gunshot wound.

The youth, Terrance Faison of 2849 20th Place, E, taken to University Hospital, two assailants shot his right.

Jackson was returning a part-time job to his apartment in front of his home, said Sgt. George Grubbs.

"They talked to him a then two shots were fired. As Jackson fell to the ground, Grubbs called for help."

When police arrived at 10 p.m., they found Faison in his mother's arm.

Grubbs said he had at least one suspect, but speculate about a motive have been made.

Probe nets abuse charge

A volunteer worker, who was a former professional Boy Scout worker, has left Jefferson County Family Court following allegations he sexually abused a 15-year-old boy, The News has learned.

Homewood police charged [redacted] with sexual abuse on Tuesday following an 11-day internal investigation by court officials.

Chief Probation Officer A.C. Conyers said [redacted] will not be reassigned to work with other delinquent children. The case is still under investigation.

Authorities said the abuse allegedly occurred at Francis' Homewood apartment. Conyers said volunteers are not supposed to take juveniles to their homes.

[redacted], who had done similar work at Tuscaloosa County Family Court, came to Birmingham "highly recommended" about one year ago, Conyers said. He had worked with at least two other delinquents here before the complaint was heard on May 22, he said.
