Dear Mr. Ernst:

Attached are three confidential records that request the denial of membership in the Boy Scouts of America.

The sheet for Ewalt completes the paperwork where David Park verbally told me his registration had been denied by the registration service.

The Dunkin and Marker cases are new. In phone conversation Richard Harrington had been appraised of the cases.

When any additional information is developed on any of these individuals, it will be forwarded to the registration service.

In regard to any earlier denial of registration on Rod Bauder, he is now asking for a council review hearing and we are proceeding with the request as outlined in the Procedures for Maintaining Standards of Membership. He has retained an attorney and claims he'll take it all the way. I've talked with Ray Neal and Richard Harrington on this process. We do have a council attorney, Henry Newton, who is working with us on this case.

Sincerely,

Craig H. Reide
Scout Executive
